Student Housing Affidavit

- I. Qualifications: Enrolled students who satisfy the requirements specified in the Rules of Application for and Management of Short-term Accommodation at Student Dormitories of I-Shou University.
- II. The lease term is as stated above. The lease terminates as the term expires. Moving out halfway through the lease term will constitute a breach of the lease.
- III. Rent:
  1. The rent is NT$150 per day. The Student Housing Section will issue a payment slip for the rent.
  2. A deposit of NT$3,000 shall be paid when I sign the lease. When I move out of the dormitory upon expiry of the lease, I-Shou University (“the University”) will make an interest-free refund of the deposit after I clear out the dorm bed and return the room key, payable electricity charges and compensation for any damage to dormitory facilities due to improper use are deducted, and I return dormitory-owned items and clean up the dorm room.
  3. No deposit refund is made if I do not move in as scheduled or fail to complete the moving-out process by a given deadline.
- IV. Electricity Charges: A meter is installed at each dorm room, and I shall pay electricity charges based on actual energy consumption during the lease term. Electricity charges will be deducted from the deposit. (There is no need to pay water charges as they are covered in the rent.)
- V. I agree to abide by the Guidelines on Student Dormitory Management at I-Shou University and the Housing Regulations for Dormitory Residents at I-Shou University, to comply with guidance and supervision from dormitory superintendents, and to keep the dormitory safe, quiet, and clean. In case of any violation, I shall be punished according to the applicable regulations and rules of the University and be held liable for any damage, injury, or loss.
- VI. If an access control system is installed at the dormitory entrance or the elevator, I shall enter and leave the dormitory with an access card and keep the doors closed at all times. I shall not bring relatives, friends, or non-residents into the dormitory or allow them to stay overnight. I shall meet guests only in the dormitory common room.
- VII. Dormitory 2 offers twin en-suite rooms. When my roommate moves out during the lease term, leaving only one resident staying in the room, I shall have no objection to being relocated to another room or having a new roommate move in.
- VIII. When I am found to have violated the Housing Regulations for Dormitory Residents at I-Shou University, the University reserves the right to terminate the lease immediately and request me to move out by a given deadline. After the lease is terminated, I shall clean out the dorm room on the date of moving out of the dormitory. I shall not claim any right against the University or request relocation allowances or other fees from the University. The University reserves the right to dispose of all items left behind after I move out.
- IX. As there is no parking lot at the dormitory, I shall always park my vehicle at the parking lot on campus.
- X. I shall not be dressed improperly (e.g., in my underwear or pajamas) on the balcony or yelling outward. I shall be groomed and well-dressed when leaving the dormitory as per campus etiquette.
- XI. Effective Date: The lease becomes effective on the date when I sign it and pay the rent in full.
